NHS Induction

Last Thursday, September 16, seven new members were inducted into the CCS chapter of the National Honor Society. Students who were inducted into the NHS have earned and maintained a grade point average of at least 3.7 and have demonstrated character, leadership, and service at school and in their communities and churches.

This year students will participate in group service projects as well as develop and implement individual service projects. Pictured at the top of the newsletter is our returning member Charlie Hill and new inductees Seth Brantzeg, Lydia Constable, Laura Lambert, Kenneth Parris, Katelyn Stomp, Joshua Wilson, and Chloe Yoder.

Instrumental Lessons

In an assembly this week our elementary students were treated to multiple performances by Mr.

Rappoldt, demonstrating all of the instruments they might like to learn how to play! Music Conservatory lessons are now being scheduled. Head on over to the Music Conservatory page on our website for more information and to sign up for lessons.

Parents and Volunteering at CCS

Parent volunteers are an essential part of fulfilling the mission and vision of

CCS. Last year the CCS Board of Trustees developed a mandatory volunteer hour requirement for each CCS family. To learn more about this policy and how to submit your volunteer hours, simply go to pages 32-34 of the CCS Parent/Student handbook. You can find the handbook here.

Periodically, the CCS administration and various event leaders will put out requests for volunteers. Please check your email frequently for these opportunities. Our athletic director, Phil Yoder, is always in need of volunteers for MS and HS games and you may email him directly at phil.yoder@conestogachristian.net. As always, if you have any questions about volunteering you may contact the school and we will gladly assist you.

Leadership Training

The student leadership team will be heading over to High Point Camp next Wednesday the 29th for a day of leadership training. The day will be lead by Christian Endeavor. Students will get valuable lessons on the best ways to lead small groups throughout this school year.

Science Explorers

Science Explorers is gearing up for the first Club of this school year! Starting Wednesday, October 6th, we will be exploring the Wacky World of Science, which is a three-week club. We will be making colorful density towers, creating our own motorized inventions, and much more! Students who register before the first day of class save $10 on the tuition. Also, families registering multiple children for Wacky World of Science, as well as Rock Docs, our next Club in February, will receive 5% off their total tuition. (Three or more registrations in one school year receive the discount.) Spots are still available for both clubs.

Mrs. Sunshine Smiley will be leading these clubs - please reach out to her with any questions about Science Explorers. She can be reached at kathy.smiley@conestogachristian.net.

A new First-Grader?

Caleb Stoltzfus's dwarf hamster, Itsy, spent a day in first grade this week! It was a fun day watching Itsy explore the maze in her cage and work out on her hamster wheel. However, the students think they might have tired Itsy out with all of the learning and excitement happening because Itsy slept most of the afternoon. ☺
